

Competition Rules – Bikini

Judging

1. Each competitor is called onstage individually in numerical order in a two-piece bikini and high heels and walks onstage performing their "Model Walk" and then forms in equal numbers along diagonal lines at each side of the stage. The center stage area is left clear for the callouts.

2. The "Model Walk" is described as follows:

Walk to the center of the stage, stop and do a front stance (one hand or both hands on hip front pose), then a full turn and do a back stance (one hand or both hands on hip back pose), then turn to the front again (hands on hip) and face the judges, and then proceed to the side of the stage. No lewd acts are permitted. The length of time allowed is 10 seconds.

3. The head judge then directs groups of competitors in numerical order through the front and back turns. The size of the groups is at the discretion of the head judge.

4. The head judge then directs selected competitors through the callouts, where the selected competitors are compared against each other in the front and back turns, as well as in the "Walk". The number and placement of competitors in the callouts is at the discretion of the head judge.

5. The "Walk" is described as follows:

Start by facing the judges (one hand or both hand on hip front pose). Under the direction of the head judge, turn 180°, pause, walk towards the back of the stage, pause, turn 180°, pause, walk towards the front of the stage and face the judges.
